AWARD SCHEME

The Award Scheme

The Scottish Junior CE Award Scheme is based on the concept of the Duke of Edinburgh's Award Scheme. The Awards are to encourage and for most of them the criteria for achievement is the good effort and positive attitude by the Junior as they work through the requirements. The motives behind them are the qualities of loyalty, commitment and caring for others as they live their every day Christian life serving Christ and the Church.

Role of the Leader

Many of these Awards can be obtained by the Juniors participating in the weekly meeting. You may find it beneficial to have a Leader solely responsible for the Award Scheme and to discuss at a meeting which Awards to tackle and how to organise the Juniors. A chart of the weekly meeting participants will help record individual's work. The Awards can be part of the meeting every week, or as a project on a theme for a short spell.

Age Limit

Leaders should guide their Juniors to the subjects most suitable for them. Some subjects are best tackled by the more mature child, others lend themselves to all age groups. The older Junior who is transferring to a Young People's society may continue the Scheme in YPCE

The Certificates

These are A4 PDF and can be downloaded by all affiliated CE Groups in Scotland. They can then be collected in a ten pocketed display book for each Junior.

The Examiners

The examiners are as indicated for each Award: Local CE Group Leader, Church official, local expert or Scottish Junior CE Convener.

The Awards

The Leader must complete a Record of Achievement sheet for each Junior. When a Junior is eligible for a badge, this sheet would be sent to the Junior Convener at least three weeks before the Scottish Annual Convention for verification. The badge and Stage Certificate are presented at the Convention. There is a Bronze, Silver and Gold badge. There is no charge for these badges for Groups who have paid their Annual Subscription to Scottish Christian Endeavour. (Replacements for lost badges can be bought from Scottish CE office.)
